

SUMMER PROGRAM 2019 SPEAKERS

Tuesday Jan 15	Paul Bywater	Film: "And Their Ghosts May Be Heard"
Thurs Jan 17	Dr Kerry Howells	Living and Learning with Gratitude
Tues Jan 22	Greg Barns	Decline of Liberal Values
Thurs Jan 24	Suzy Degradi	The history of weaving and embroidery in China till the end of the Qing Dynasty
Tues Jan 29	Robin Alington Maguire	French Balloon Corps 1780s
Thurs Jan 31	Dr Louise Grimmer	Airbnb and the impact of word-of-mouth marketing for small businesses in Tassie
Tues Feb 5	Dr Penny Jones	What happened to the Indus civilisation? Did climate change = collapse?
Thurs Feb 7	Dr Lucy Tatman	Silences (philosophy)
Tues Feb 12	Prof Rufus Black	The Roy and Maureen Davies Memorial Lecture 2019: A Place-Based Society

To kick off the summer program we're having a picnic at Site 9, the lovely Waterworks Reserve, South Hobart.

On Thursday January 10
11am till 4pm

*There is nearby parking, ramp access and undercover seating
BYO morning tea and lunch. Gas barbeque available.*

Johnny Mackay and his EMUs ukulele group will entertain between 12 and 12.45, and at 2pm there will be a cultural talk from Rob Armstrong, program officer of the Hobart City Council, followed by a guided walk. There is a small fee of $5.50 per person for the cultural talk and walk.

Bring your family but no pets please. See you there.

Questions? Call Jane on 0407 529 275